Initiative

Flashback Fingers

- 1 What are you doing today?
- 2 Why are you doing it?
- 3 How does this link with what you did in this lesson last week?
- 4 How does this feed into what you learnt in this subject last term? Last year?
- 5 How does this link to what you have done in other subjects recently?

Can you make a quiz or flash cards for your friend to help them remember what you learnt last term in Spanish? Help them to learn more and remember more! Use our Flashback fingers to help you.

Acceptance

y - makes the sound 'ee' and the word "and".

ci - thee

v - b

ce - thay

qu - c

Last term we were made aware of the differences in phonics between English and Spanish. We should have now accepted these differences.

DIACRITICAL MARKS USED IN SPANISH

ACCUTE ACCENT: á

TILDE: ñ

DIAERESIS: ü

THE GRAVE ACCENT, USED IN FRENCH AND OTHER LANGUAGES: à

Spanish written language has accents over some of the letters. English computers do not have these symbols. Make sure you add the right symbol over the correct letter during your Spanish lessons onto your knowledge organiser.

Relationships

There are 22 Spanish speaking countries. Christopher Columbus whom you learnt about in Year 1 along with other Spanish explorers took the Spanish language to Central and South America during their explorations in the 15th and 16th centuries.
